First graders have been busy this holiday season studying how Christmas is celebrated around the world. Countries studied were Italy, Germany, England, Mexico, Sweden, and China.

Spring Volleyball

5th-8th Volleyball Girls,

In March, we have the opportunity to compete against other FKC volleyball teams for some spring competition. I would like to begin to have practices where we will work on fundamentals, skills and conditioning and progress into game play. There will be two teams; 5th & 6th grade, and 7th & 8th grade. In order to have a good, working team there may be a possibility of a 6th grade student moving up. This will be decided by position and Coach Smith & Coach Kulhanek.

During the time of Spring Volleyball, we will abide by the Ansley-Litchfield HS Volleyball rules and guidelines. Some key points are: player should be in attendance when possible, players should work hard and come prepared, and playing time and team selection will not be discussed.

I am looking forward to working with this new group of girls. Please let me know if you are interested in this opportunity by emailing me at jsmith@ansleyps.org. Please include your email and the best way to contact the player. I do understand that several of you are playing with other clubs and teams and that is fantastic! Please feel free to also play and practice with us or not.

We will hold the first practice on Saturday, February 1st at 3:30 pm in the Ansley North Gym. Practice will be 1.5-2 hours long. I will also be ordering a team t-shirt as soon as I have the names. I expect these to be under $25, and they will be required for games.

Also, we have been working hard to bring a summer Volleyball camp in Ansley for junior high and high school girls. Stay tuned for more information about this 2-day camp.

History of Custer County, Nebraska: Ansley's Merchants

ANSLEY'S MERCANTILE ESTABLISHMENTS

The first merchant in Ansley was Edgar Varney, who moved his store over from Westerville and put it in charge of his son, T. T. Varney, in the early part of the year 1886. The same year, Thomas H. Blowers also moved from Westerville. About the same time, W. D. Fritz opened up the first hardware store, in the building with Edgar Varney.

The following year saw the advent of E. H. Burrows, A. H. Shepard, Gaines & Hagin, and the Butler Brothers. Burrows continued in business up to the year 1912, when he disposed of his interests to E. L. Kelley and removed to Los Angeles, California. A. H. Shepard was in business up to 1916, when he disposed of his stock of goods to his son, Archie H., and his daughter, Myrtle C., and entered the post office. Gaines & Hagin ran their business until 1909, when they dissolved partnership, Hagin disposing of his interests to Gaines and, later, starting a new store, which he continued to run until 1913. Gaines continued at the old stand up to the time of his death, January 2, 1915. when his sons disposed of his stock of goods. Thomas H. Blowers, in the early part of the '90s, traded his mercantile business for the milling interests of A. W. Hawk, who operated it with C. J. Stevens and I. Clark about ten years. Of the present merchants, C. J. Stevens started his present store in 1895. J. H. Kerr in 1899, F. P. Hawk in 1903, L. F. Landmesser in 1907, J. H. Varney in 1914, and Shepard & Shepard in 1916.

ANSLEY'S MERCANTILE ESTABLISHMENTS

The first furniture and undertaking establishment in Ansley was run by Fred Gosselin, who opened it in 1889 or 1890. The R. G Applegarth Furniture and Undertaking Company have been in business since 1906. Mr. Applegarth died in the year 1916, since which time the manager, H. D. Reed, who has been with the company from the first, has had sole charge. Mattley & Hoover and C. J. Stevens both carry a line of furniture, while the former also do an undertaking business.

The first hardware dealer was W. D. Fritz, but the Butler Brothers and Gaines & Hagin also carried a full line of hardware and farm machinery. In 1902 W. S. Mattley began selling hardware and farm machinery, disposing of his business to his brother, Charles E., in May, 1914. In April, 1916, the firm became Mattley & Hoover, through the admission of C. B. Hoover. D. W. Thompson sold farm machinery from 1903 to 1913.

ANSLEY'S MERCANTILE ESTABLISHMENTS

The present dealers in farm machinery are J. D. Knapp and Hiser & Detwiler. Mr. Knapp has been in his present business since 1906 and Messrs. Hiser and Detwiler since 1914.

From the start, all of the general mercantile stores carried lines of clothing. Our present clothier is Roscoe G. Secord, who keeps a full line of men's furnishing goods—hats, boots, shoes, rubbers, neckties, and collars. Our tailor, Otto Winter, who came in September, 1916, also takes orders for suits, besides doing a cleaning and pressing business.

The first milliner in Ansley was Miss Wilhelmina Mengel (now Mrs. M. C. Warrington, of Mason City), who opened a shop the year that the village was started. Then came Miss Nettie Worden (now Mrs. R. M. Hayslip). She was followed by Mrs. Mary Wakelin, and she by Miss Augusta Worden. Later the Worden sisters, then Mrs. Hoover and Mrs. Holman, entered the millinery business and conducted it for several years. The present milliner is Miss Mary Geeseman, who has been in the business since 1914. Others who have carried a line of millinery since the beginning of the town have been E. H. Burrows, A. H. Shepard, and C. J. Stevens.

From the Village.....

Village Board member Cathie Jo Mills has volunteered to update and manage the Village's website and she is doing a wonderful job! The website has been in place for a few years but with no one to manage and keep it up-to-date it has not been useful.

Cathie Jo stepped forward to volunteer and learn the ins and outs of web page designing, setting up pages, posting documents and pictures, and the list goes on.

Check it out at www.ansleyne.com!
