History of Custer County, Nebraska: ANSLEY'S PROFESSIONAL MEN

The first lawyer on the ground was George Snell. Shortly afterward J. A. Armour moved over from Westerville; he later served two terms as county judge. In the spring of 1888 came Hugh McConelly. Judson C. Porter became an inhabitant of the village in 1898 but died in 1903. J. R. Rhodes hung out his shingle October 1, 1893, and has practiced his profession here ever since, with the exception of four years (1894-8) which he spent in Broken Bow, as county judge. F. M. Bentley began the practice of law in March, 1904, but died two years later, in December, 1906. N. Dwight Ford, the present county judge, was also a resident of Ansley for some time.

Ansley's first physician was Dr. C. H. Morris, who practiced here from 1886 to 1893. Part of the time contemporaneously with Dr. Morris was Dr. Hawes, who left the town in 1894. Other physicians who have practiced in Ansley are Drs. Thomas, Anderson, Mullins, Imah, and Jennings. Dr. Grace M. Lewis, a sister of Mrs. J. H. Kerr, also practiced medicine here, from 1898 to 1902. Of the present physicians, Dr. E. A. Hanna came here from Elmo, Missouri, in 1895; Dr. W. R. Young came in 1897; Dr. C. L. Housel, in 1907; Dr. R. P. Higgins, in 1913; and Dr. H. C. Stadden in 1916. Dr. Hanna is a graduate of the Ensworth Medical College, at St. Joseph, Missouri; Dr. Young, of the State University of Iowa; Dr. Housel, of the Lincoln Medical College; Dr. Higgins of the University of Nebraska, and Dr. Stadden of the Creighton College of Medicine. Dr. Housel and Dr. Higgins have been serving their country in the medical corps, in connection with the world war.

Spartan Foundation

Together we can do more!

Goals:

- Increase Scholarships for Ansley & Litchfield Students
- Increase School & Community Grants
- Decrease Fundraising Through Individual Organizations
- Increase Volunteer Participation in School & Community Events
- Promote Ansley & Litchfield Schools
- Create a Positive Impact for Our Communities

The Spartan Foundation would:

- Be a non-profit organization, under the umbrella of the Custer County Foundation, which is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation
- Be a community-based, board directed, support organization for Ansley & Litchfield Public Schools
- Allow for designated or undesignated charitable tax-deductible contributions to directly support projects within Ansley & Litchfield Public Schools
- Include a scholarship and grant program that support academics, arts and/or athletics as the primary focus
- Give smaller organizations, alumni, parents, staff, and community members a larger platform of volunteers and donations.

It seems that we are always fundraising, asked to donate or needing to volunteer.
The Spartan Foundation provides a solution while benefiting our students and communities.

How can you become a part of this new & exciting organization?

- Contributions or memorials may be given towards a specific area of interest in Ansley or Litchfield Schools, towards scholarships, or remain unspecified.

VILLAGE OF ANSLEY

Proceedings January 6, 2020

A regular meeting of the Chairperson and Board of the Village of Ansley was held in the council chambers on Monday, January 6, 2020, at 6:30 p.m. Present were Fecht, Mills, Henry, Smith and Hogg. Notice of this meeting was by posting as required by law and the agenda was communicated in advance. All proceedings hereafter shown were taken while the convened meeting was open to the public. The meeting was called to order at 6:30 p.m. and open meeting act compliance was verified.

Trustee Hogg moved to waive reading and approve the December minutes as presented. Mills seconded; 5 ayes and motion carried. A property owner expressed his opposition to responsibility as landlord for unpaid utility services at one of his properties. Trustee Hogg seconded; 5 ayes and motion carried. Trustee Henry moved to amend the Employee Handbook Health Insurance section to include the policy for active employees who reach Medicare eligible age as reviewed and discussed at this meeting; 5 ayes and motion carried. Department Head and Committee reports were given. Henry moved to approve claims. Smith seconded; 5 ayes and motion carried.

No further business and meeting adjourned at 8:10 p.m.
